DMHC given ACE award for employment of persons with disabilities

Cindy Ehnes, Director of the California Department of Managed Health Care (DMHC), accepts the 2009 ACES Award from the Association of California State Employees with Disabilities (ACSED). The organization designated the DMHC an employment “ACE” for achieving third place overall among state agencies for having a disability representation rate of 21.7 percent and disability promotion rate of 23.3 percent among its workforce. Also pictured are ACSED President Les Treece-Sinclair (center) and Po-Wen Leung, Equal Opportunity Employment Officer at the DMHC.
