IDRP Outcomes Legend

Determination Letter: A determination letter is issued when an IDRPs completes the process, and the Review Organization issues a determination.

Default Determination Letter Issued: A Default Determination is issued when the Payor fails to pay its share of the IDRPs filing fee.

Duplicate: An IDRPs is closed as a Duplicate when the provider resubmits the same claim that is currently in review or previously received a determination by the Review Organization.

Favorable to Payor: The Review Organization determined that no additional payment should be made to the provider.

Favorable to Provider: The Review Organization determined that additional payment should be made to the provider.

Incomplete Application: An IDRП is closed as an Incomplete Application when the Provider fails to submit all necessary documents. These applications are not sent to the Review Organization.

Ineligible: Any IDRП application that is deemed ineligible by the Department is closed without being sent to the Review Organization.

Initiating Party Non-Responsive: The provider failed to respond to the DMHC's Department's request(s) for additional information or documentation, so the application was closed without sending to the Review Organization.

No Payment Received: Payment for the IDRП application was not received from the Provider so the Review Organization did not complete a review.

Non-Jurisdictional: The IDRП was not within the DMHC's jurisdiction, so the application was not sent to the Review Organization.

Paid Upon Receipt of the Response: Payor made an additional payment at Request for Opposing Party Response II and the provider agreed to accept payment. These applications are not sent to the Review Organization.

Withdrawn: The IDRП application was withdrawn by the Provider prior to a determination being made by the Review Organization.
